Who says you can't be in two places at once?

- The Birthplace of Country Music, originating with the 1927 Bristol Sessions, which gave birth to the Big Bang of Country Music.
- Home of Bristol Motor Speedway, also known as The Last Great Colosseum, which seats approximately 150,000 making it one of the largest permanent seating facilities in the world.
- More than 40 square miles of inland lakes and freshwater streams including South Holston Lake, one of the premier fishing lakes in the state and Holston River, one of the top fly fishing rivers in the country
- Multiple city parks including Steele Creek Park which boasts over 2,100 acres and features hiking trails, a lake for fishing and paddle boating, a nature center, kids splash pad, disc golf and a 9-hole golf course
- Golf Club of Bristol, the oldest country club in Tennessee
- Paramount Center for the Arts in downtown Bristol. Built in the early 1930s, the theater now hosts concerts, plays, ballets, etc.
- Birthplace of Tennessee Ernie Ford – his childhood home on Anderson St. is now open to the public (by appointment)
- The Pinnacle, the region's largest shopping destination with more than 70 stores and restaurants.
- Named by AARP The Magazine this year as one of the Top 10 Cool Places to Live for Under $40,000 a year.
